

Pro-Mark TS3 Test Station

The PM-TS3 Test Station is a Terminal Enclosure to protect cathodic protection circuits or instruments also used for bonding, grounding and other line applications in telecommunications. PM-TS3 is molded from high impact UV stabilized polycarbonate and has a lifetime warranty. Test Station comes standard with five stainless steel terminals and could be ordered with a High-Density Polyethylene support post (conduit) with a minimum durability of twenty years outdoors. The PM-TS3 is available for immediate delivery in all standard colors.

* Custom Colors are available upon request.

Accessories: Bonding Straps (shorting bars), Lug terminals, Banana Jack terminals, Reducers, Stainless Steel Flange Brackets, Resistors, Rheostats and more...